What the Bible Teaches About Spiritual Gifts: An Introduction

1. Definition: Spiritual gifts

A talent, ability, or aptitude sovereignly bestowed on every believer in the Church Age by the Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation for performing a particular service in and for the Body of Christ (Rom. 12:6–8; 1 Cor. 12; Eph. 4:11; Heb. 2:4).

2. Biblical Terms

πνευματικῶν, pneumatikon, emphasizes the source and nature of the gift, that it relates to the spiritual life of the believer.

χάρισμα, charisma, emphasizes the grace nature of the gifts. The gifts are not based on any merit in the believer. In some believers the spiritual gift may enhance some natural ability, talent, or inclination; in others it may not.

μερισμός merismos: a division, separation, or a distribution or apportionment.
