The Abrahamic Covenant

1. The Parties to the Abrahamic Covenant

2. The Legal Terms of the Abrahamic Covenant: Land, Descendants, Worldwide Blessing The Promised Savior would be Abram's Descendant

3. The Signing of the Abrahamic Covenant

Who Will Tell God's Story?

- 1. Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth lived through the Flood and knew of man's early history. But they would be dead 500 years after the Flood. Who would continue telling God's story?
- 2. Just as it was before the Flood, people were wicked and rebellious towards God after the Flood. At Babel, they created their own "god" (that is, worshipped themselves) and created their own truth (for example, a man-made tower can reach heaven). They would not tell God's story. They were not interested in the truth.

Who Will Tell God's Story?

- 3. When God judged the people at Babel, He created many languages. This meant there was no more global language that everyone understood. Who would be able to tell God's story to the world?
- 4. As the Ice Age ended, tribes and nations were spread out all over the world. Who would go to all the ends of the world to tell them God's story?
